As a three-year pledged endowment, the donor(s) agree to pay a minimum of $15,000 by _____.

(Date should be three years from initial installment date.)

A pledged endowment of $15,000 must be paid in full at the end of the third pledge year in order for the endowment to be awarded according to the donor(s) guidelines. Failure to meet the $15,000 endowment minimum by the date listed above will result in the PCEF Board of Directors distributing the balance according to their discretion.

1. As a three-year pledged endowment, will additional contributions be made after the third year of giving?
_____ If so, please describe your future plans for giving:

The Foundation has a Selection Committee that determines scholarship awards based on student applications and a point system. The committee will do their best to incorporate any general guidelines established. The decisions of the committee are final. You will be notified of your scholarship award winner(s) each year.*
Special Use Awards are made by the Foundation's Board of Directors who will, within the best of their ability, follow any guidelines you may establish.*
Endowments are non-refundable and the funds may not be recalled or returned.*
Endowed or cash awards must be a minimum of $500.00.*

2. The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) charitable, non-profit organization as determined by the IRS. We cannot discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, national origin, religion, age, disability, socioeconomic status, marital status, or veteran status. Aside from this, are there any special guidelines you wish to establish for your scholarship or special use endowment? If so, please describe as simply as possible:

3. If this is for a Special School Project, please describe the general area of use for the funds:

4. If no student or use shall qualify under your guidelines in a given year, what do you want the Foundation to do with the funds that year? Please check one of the following uses for the proceeds in that situation.
